Needles (huffing and puffing): Suṛ!Suṛ! where are you? Look look what I found!
 Suṛ: Needles...I Am heeere (sitting on the wall & swinging his legs) : whoosh..

Needles : Suṛ.. stop stop, see na. Its a strange fruit! Want to eat it?

Suṛ: No Needles, you eat. I am worried, Needles. My mother & sister are very intelligent and much better than that teacher (both together), "Mr. Know All". I saw my mum trying to read one of my books, but she was struggling. She really is a SuperMom! I really want to gift her my super powers.

Needles: So what let your mom do it! My mother used to help me do my homework.. (whispering) and sometimes even do it for me!(chuckling) Why don't you gift the superpower !

Suṛ: No Needles, that would be wrong. I have kept the secret from mum for so long that telling her now would surely shock her! Leave that.
 I have decided that I will empower all the women of Threadland by training all those who want to teach, become teachers, open a school or want to teach their child.

Needles: Don't joke! Why will the teacher want to come to learn from you!!

Suṛ : Needles don't forget that I have the power of IAO & ISO 9001:2008. My Powers are internationally recognized and my services have been appreciated by more than 300 centres..

Needles : You never told me this!
 Suṛ : We all know about your short memory..... (Testing look) Needles what did you bring?
 Needles: (zapped look)—What!! I didn't bring anything!! (Suṛ-Giggles)

Needles: I really like what you say but how will you achieve what you say?

Suṛ: Needles I know that all my Threadlandians need good opportunities for their professional development, therefore, I will work hand in hand with the keen learners to train them on Montessori methods, story telling, reflective teaching, creativity, lesson planning & communication skills.

Needles: (Gazing at the sky)...Oh my! Suṛ that's Threadtastic!!!

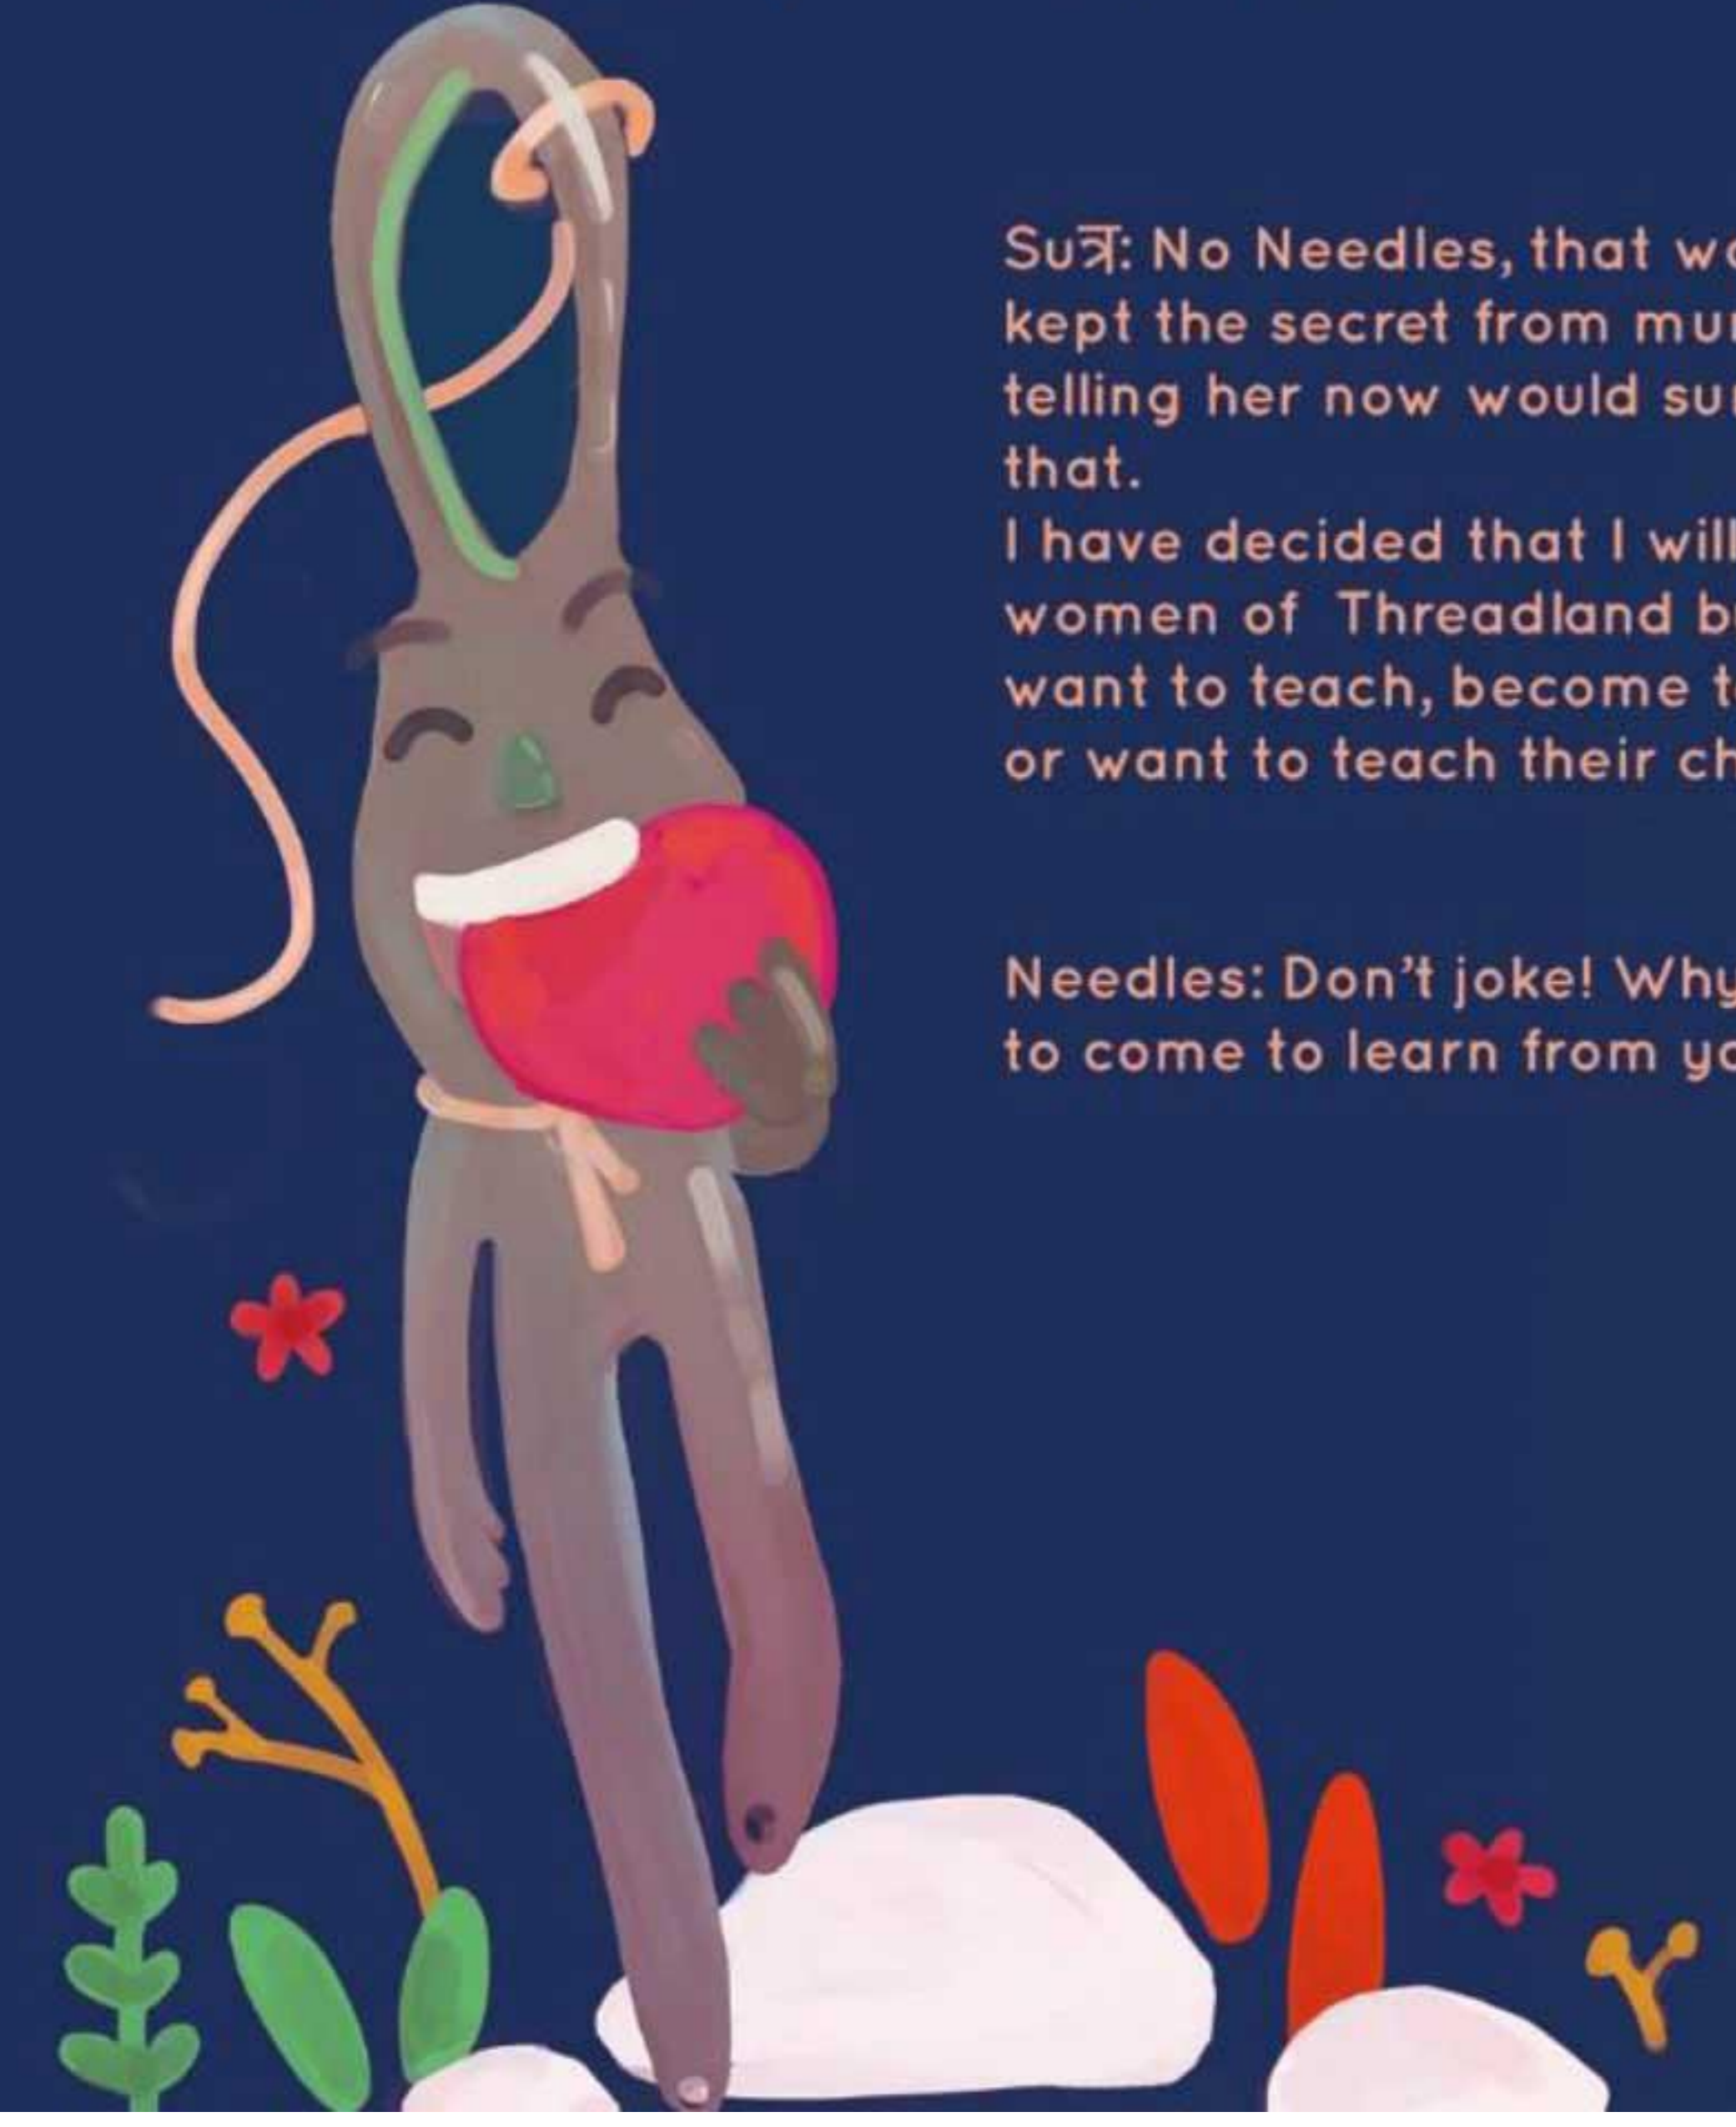

Suṛ: What's more, one of my biggest superpowers is that I am the only trainer in Northland for International Montessori Training (IMTTI)!!

Needles : All hail the Great Montessori Powers! (Bends n bows) But will you be doing all of this here in Threadland?
 Suṛ: I have my beautiful Hutland named after myself – Suṛ located in Sector 49, Noida.

Needles: When did you buy that?
 Suṛ: Needles we just went there yesterday! See, you and me in the veranda. (showing the centre pic on the phone)
 Needles: Oh yes, I remember the metro ride was so cool. And your office is only 10 minutes from the Metro Station. I was so scared of the buses zooming and autos honking on the main road.

Suṛ: Thank God you remember!! Come now let us go and meet the existing preschool/kindergarten teachers, counsellors, administrators, coordinators, mothers, curriculum planners, freshers and anyone with a keen interest in teaching little ones aged 3 to 6 years old. We will change the way all "KnowAlls" teach! HIGH FIVE!

UP! UP, HERE WE ROLL! TO THE CENTRE OF SUṛ -THE LEARNING THREAD!! (both roll n hop..holding each others hands)

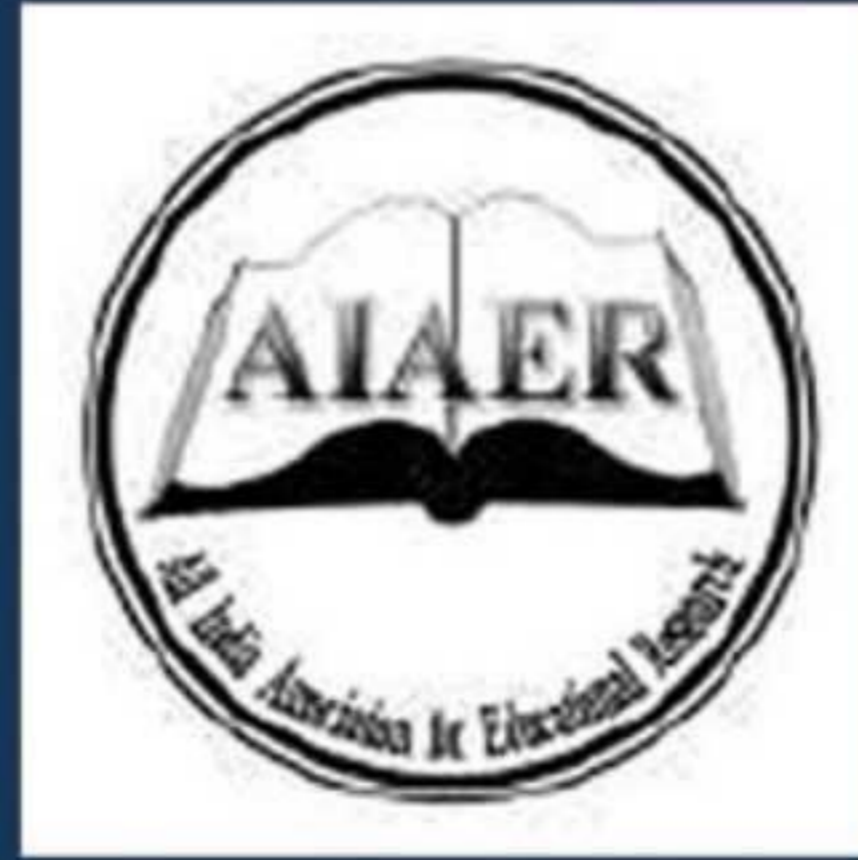

This story brings out the dilemma Indian women face after studies/marriage.

Suत्र wants to empower all women (before/after marriage) who want a new beginning or a career in teaching children, but are unable to do so because family is their priority.

This is a short story that reflects the love a child has for the mother. This love is represented by Suत्र, a friendly training institute in Sector 49 in Noida.
